Engagement

Madhusmita Das, our Partner, hosted a roundtable at GITEX Europe Berlin 2026 on "Sovereignty and Scale: Can Europe's AI Companies Have Both?", exploring the challenges and opportunities for European AI companies to scale while maintaining technological sovereignty.

Our founder, Rajul Garg represented Leo Capital at TechBBQ in Copenhagen, contributing to the Nordic–India Startup Summit. The engagement aligned with Leo Capital's focus on building a pan-European fund with strong Nordic roots and connecting European founders to markets, capital, talent, and networks across India and the US.

Olga Balakina, our VP, participated in the What We Fund session at NORDEEP, alongside fellow investors, where investors pitched to startups rather than the other way around. The discussion explored what founders should expect from their investors and the value they bring beyond capital.

Engagement

Rajul Garg spoke at Maria 01's Builders' Breakfast in Helsinki, joining founders, operators and investors for discussions on early-stage company-building decisions and the challenges founders navigate beyond fundraising.

Madhusmita Das and Gaganpreet Luthra, our COO attended Young Guns at To The Peak in the Dolomites, joining a curated community of investors, founders and ecosystem leaders to exchange perspectives and build connections.

Rajul Garg was a speaker at Founders [X]change in Amsterdam, hosting a roundtable on "Fundraising, Runway & Capital" with founders and investors. He also spoke at HumanX, engaging with the broader AI ecosystem on the future of AI in Europe.

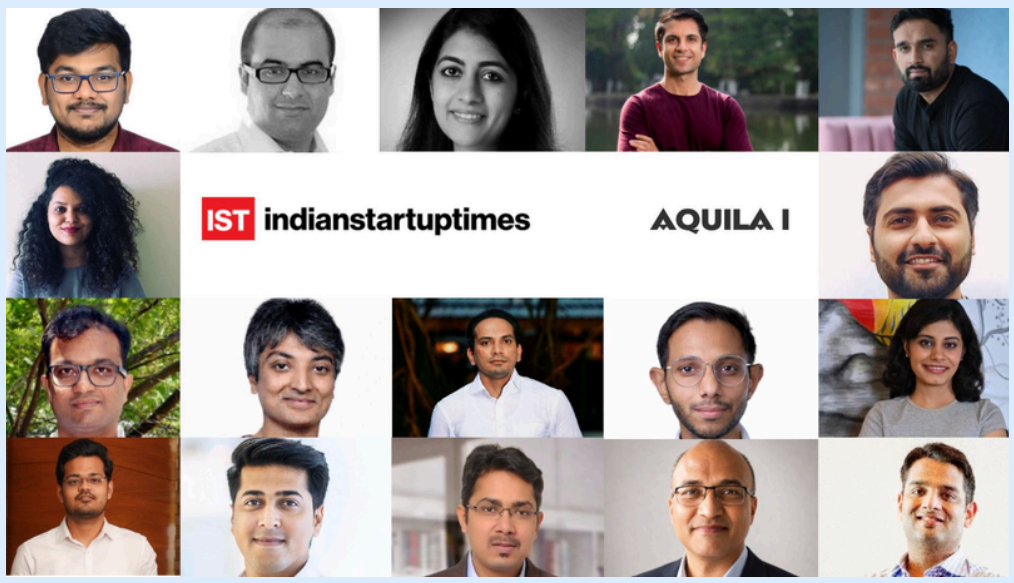

Engagement

Our co-founder, Shwetank Verma, spoke at LEAP East 2026, sharing our cross-border investing lessons with practical insights on global expansion and capital-efficient scaling while strengthening startup ecosystem relationships.

Our COO, Gaganpreet Luthra, joined a panel on moving from operator to founder, exploring entrepreneurial highs and lows and what makes startups fundable. The candid, curious conversations underscored how openly shared lessons strengthen founder ecosystems.

Madhusmita Das, our Partner, was recognized in the Indian Startup Times ‘AI & Cybersecurity VC Power List – Top 100’.

Engagement

Shwetank joined the podcast FinStep Asia's Token Bytes with Syed Musheer Ahmed to discuss AI-driven insurance, insurtech, venture capital trends, what defines great founders, and how data, innovation, and specialization will shape the future of financial services.

Shwetank was a speaker at Money 20/20 Middle East and had the discussion on "Capital without borders – Investing Across Emerging Markets"

Shwetank attended ICT Week in Uzbekistan, gaining insights into the country's rapidly growing startup ecosystem and strong government push to foster innovation. Discussions highlighted Uzbekistan's growing global connectivity and an opportunity to strengthen India–Uzbekistan collaboration, leveraging shared technical capabilities and market synergies.
